

See you in Denver, Colorado at AORN 2010 Congress

Visit us at Ascent Healthcare Solutions BOOTH #2811

- Learn how Ascent Healthcare Solutions continues to push for more environmentally sound practices in healthcare and how we assist hospitals and healthcare providers to use resources in a smarter, better way.
- Learn how Ascent saves leading hospitals millions of dollars and eliminates tons of unnecessary waste each year with FDA-compliant reprocessing services for single-use medical devices.
- Find out how you can receive free Continuing Education (CE) credits designed to teach simple, impactful practices for increasing sustainability in the operating room. These courses were developed in response to overwhelming industry demand for more education on sustainability practices and are tailored to all hospital-based registered nurses, technicians and administrators. Accredited by the California Board of Nursing, Ascent's CE courses are self-paced and available online.
